DEADLINE FOR 1989 LITERATURE FELLOWSHIPS IS SEPTEMBER 10

The Council will award four fellowships of $2500 each to authors of outstanding manuscripts.

Deadline: Manuscripts must be postmarked by September 10, 1988.

Who is eligible: You must have been a Wyoming resident for one year prior to the deadline, and you may not be a full-time student.

What to send: Three copies of work in manuscript form. Fiction, non-fiction and drama must be 40 pages or less, typed double-spaced on one side of each page. Poetry must be 15 pages or less, typed double- or single-spaced, one poem per page. If you combine genres, poetry must account for no more than 15 pages and total manuscript length must not exceed 40 pages. Don't send any supplementary materials.

Form of submissions: Your name must not appear on the manuscript. Enclose a single cover sheet with your name, address, phone, titles of works, and whether you want your manuscript returned (if so, also include a self-addressed stamped envelope).

Mailing address: Wyoming Council on the Arts, 2320 Capitol Avenue, Cheyenne, WY, 82002, Attn: Literary Fellowship.

Panel of Judges: Three writers will choose and announce winners. MARVIN BELL, Flannery O'Connor Professor of Letters at the Iowa Writers' Workshop has written many books of poetry including New and Selected Poems. He's received Guggenheim and NEA fellowships and has twice been a Fulbright Scholar. WILLIAM KITTREDGE, Professor of English and Creative Writing at the University of Montana, was co-winner of the Neil Simon Award for the film script Heartland. TERRY MCMILLAN, who teaches in the MFA program at the University of Arizona, is author of the acclaimed novel Mama. She has been a fellow at Yaddo Artist Colony and The MacDowell Colony, and recently received an NEA literature fellowship.

Conference: Award winners will be announced at a conference on October 21-22, 1988. Details will appear in next month's newsletter.

More information: For complete guidelines, call Jean Hanson, 638-2400, or call the Council on the Arts, 777-7742.
